About Repair

Precautions · https://manual.amnimo.com/en/docs/precautions/about-repair/

- For inquiries about malfunctions, please contact Customer Support.
- If this product should become defective, please contact us with the model name and serial number of the product and provide a description of the problem and its progress, including a schematic diagram and data, if possible.
- We will follow the replacement procedure for the malfunctioning Product. However, we may charge a separate fee if the product is not covered free of charge at our discretion.